since about 5 January stoppage of all traffic has occurred at most southern zone traffic points. This is due to the fact that police accept trains destined for Poland but refuse to pass trains destined for Russia. Similar inadequate handling of trains was protested by the Berlin Reichsbahn district when trains were held up at Küstrin and Frankfurt/Oder. By 8 January 1948 about 120 trains were awaiting passage, and stoppage had spread to Magdeburg, Schwerin, and Wismar.
